MAIL ROBBIRY.

CHICAGO, October 25 .- The mail pouch which left Boston Tuesday evening arrived in Chicago last evening over the Michigan Southern road, with all of the registered mail gone, and the supposiregistered mail gone, and the supposi-tion is a large amout of money was ob-tained by the thief. The bag was cut open, the thief taking the package con-taining first classification only. This leads to the belief that the perpetrator is someone connected with the postal service. The robbery is supposed o nave been committed between Biston and Cleveland.

and Cleveland.

Boston, October 25—News of the robet of a Boston mail peuch was received here this morning at the registered letter division of the postoffice. The pouch left Boston at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning and contained thirty-five packages of first-class matter, much of this going beyond Chicago, some of the letters being addressed to San Francisco. Only thirt en pieces were going to Chicago and all the others further west. Each package contained from west. Each package contained from one to twelve letters, all of which must either have contained money or checks

A FUGITIVE PROM JUSTICE.

BALTIMORE, October 25 -A man giving the name of Walter A. Mc-Nulty, an unusually competent journalist, arrived here a short time ago. He made many influential friends, secured money on worthless drafts and skipped. Now it is said he is a fugitive from justice in many cities, including San Francisco.

TO BE HANGED.

CHARLESTON, S. C., October 25 .- At Spartanburg, this State, yesterday, R. Senn and Helena Boland were both sentenced to be hanged December 14th, for the murder of Mrs. Senn two years ago. Senn was infatuated with Miss Boland, and poisoned his wife to get her out of the way.

THE BRITISH MINISTER.

Lord Sackville West Has Put His Foot Into It.

LONDON, October 25 - The St. James Gazette, referring to the letter written by Sackville, British Minister at Wash- and called them Warner's Log Cabin by Sackville, British Minister at Washton, to anglo-American residents of California, says: "In the present position of American politics, Sackville should not have written such a letter. even under the seal of privacy; but the fact that he acted in perfect innocence is clear. The idea which American politicians appear to hold, that England is reduced to help re-elect Cleveland, is a thorough mistake. The personality of the future President is purely a domestic question."

readily, but happily he did not commit would be valuable to Republican wirepullers. The trick is too obvious and discreditable to have much effect.

THE PENDING PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, and the British minister's reply: "Yes, I have read both letters. I had not seen the British minister since he went to Europe last spring until he called on me this morning at the Department of State. Lord Sackville West has no other or better means of knowledge of the intentions of the President than any one of the sixty-five millions of American people. His personal opin-ion is worth no more than that of any one of them, on the ground of knowledge and much less on the ground of interest in the subject, while there must be diversions of opinion as to the impropriety of the expression of individual views by any one holding the position of a foreign envoy. It is still to be hoped, we will be able to settle the issues involved in the pending canvass without the importation of in our domestic affairs. The American people will be prompt to resent and repel as impertinent any such attempts, but this will easily be recognized as a po-litical pitfall arranged by the California letter with its objects so plainly stamped upon its face and addressed to a British minister, into which he has so sur-prisingly tumbled. Such petty schemes to break the fall of despairing politicians will be held in proper estimation by the popular intelligence."

The Parnell Commission.

London, October 25 .- At the reassembling of the Parnell commission to-day, Attorney-General Webster resumed his address in behalf of the Times. He dilated on the relations between the Parnellites and members of the American SALMON & FISH.

ALL KINDS OF

Green Groceries,

Lesgue, and contended that the lesgue originated in America. He declared that it was a conspiracy hatched in America and effected by American money. The members of the league in America were dynamiters and advocates of murder, and they had the Parrellites as accomplices. He denonneed nellites as accomplices. He denounced Finerty, Redfall and Rossa as dynamit-ers, who had plotted the most villainons forms of outrage. He said it was absurd to say that Parnell had no rela-tions with Patrick Ford, as a host of facts proved an intimate connection between the two.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR. A CLAIM TO HUMAN GRATI-

Charlotte Corday, the sad-faced, tender-hearted peasant girl of Nor-mandy made great history by one desperate act!

Sickened by the saturnalia of the French revolution, and moved to desperation as Robespierre and Marat were leading the flower of France to the guillotine, she determined that would put an end to Marat's bloody reign.

Marat had demanded two hundred thousand victims for the guilotine! He proposed to kill off the enemies of the Revolution to make it perpetual!

Horrible thought!

No wonder it fired the blood of this patriotic peasant maid!
Gnining access to his closely guarded quarters by a subterfuge, she found him in his bath even then inexorable and giving written directions for further slaughter!

He asked her the names of the inin cal deputies who had taken refuge in Caen. She told him, and he wrote them down. "That is well! Before a week is over they shall al be brought to the guillotine." At these words, Charlotte drew from her bosom the knife, and plunged with supernatural force up to the "Come to me, my dear friend, come to me," cried Marat, and expired under the blow!

In the Corcoran gallery at Washington is a famous painting of Charlotte, represented as behind the prison bars the day before her execution.

It is a thrilling, sad picture, full of sorrow for her suffering country, and of unconquerable hate for her country's enemies.

What a lesson in this tragic story! Two hundred, nay, five hundred thousand people would Marat have sacrificed to his unholy passion of power!

Methods are quite as murderous and inexorable as men, and they number their victims by the millions. The page of history is full of murders by authority and by mistaken ideas! In the practice of medicine alone how many hundreds of millions have been allowed to die and as many more killed by unjustifiable bigotry and by bungling! But the age is bettering. Men and methods are improving. A few years ago it was worth one's professional life to advise or permit the use of a proprietary medicine. To-day there are not two physicians in any town in this country who do not regularly prescribe some form of proprietory remedy!

H. H. Warner, famed all over the world as the discoverer of Warner's safe cure, began hunting up the old remedies of the Log Cabin days; after long and patient research he succeeded in securing some of the and called them warner's Log Casin remedies—the simple preparation of roots, leaves, balsams and herbs which were the successful standbys of our grandmothers. These simple, old-fashioned sarsaparilla, hops and bucku, cough and consumption and other remedies have struck a popular chord and are in extraordinary dechord and are in extraordinary de-mand all over the land. They are not the untried and imaginary re-medies of some dabster chemist medies of some dabster chemist intent on making money, but the long-sought principles of the healing art which for generations kept our ancestors in perfect health, put forth for the good of humanity by one who is known all over the world as a philanthropist—a lover of his fellow man,—whose name is a guarantee of the highest strader of excellence.

The preparations are of decided and known influence over disease, and as in the hands of our grandmothers they raised up the sick, cured the lame, and bound up the wounds of death, so in their new form but olden power as Log Cabin remedies, they are sure to prove the "healing of the nations."

id the world an incalculable service in ridding France of the bigoted and murderous Marat, just as this man is doing humanity a service by re-introducing to the simpler and better methods of our
